

Chattahoochee Hills Charter School opening August 2011 with grades K-5 dedicated to high academic achievement through a rigorous curriculum that utilizes the wonders of the natural world. The instructional method will embody experiential engagement with the arts, agriculture, and the environment in informed, imaginative, and rigorous ways.

The school will serve a five county attendance zone area, commonly called "Chattahoochee Hills" (the southwest corridor of Atlanta, including the cities of Chattahoochee Hills, Palmetto, Fairburn and unincorporated portions of Fulton, Fayette, Carroll, Douglas, and Coweta counties). Open enrollment begins in February. For more information
